Engel Creative Draws More Design Talent Adding Drew Moravec as Master Web Designer

St. Louis, MO (May 3, 2007) -- Engel Creative, the fast-growing marketing services firm specializing in big ideas with stylish design, announces the addition of Drew Moravec as Master Web Designer.

Mr. Moravec joins Engel Creative from Affirmative Action Register and W. H. Green, Inc. where he was a print and web designer. Hospitals, car dealerships and homeowners have also commissioned Mr. Moravec for unique and sophisticated mural designs. He also has advertising design experience from Daytona Pennysaver in Florida.

“Drew brings a sophisticated, worldly design style to our clients,” said Ed Engel, President of Engel Creative. “In addition to his excellent work on web design, he has an artistic eye and demonstrated abilities gained from his time spent in Europe as well as his commercial work in America.”

Engel Creative is a creative marketing services firm that provides big ideas and stylish designs for healthcare, consumer, retail and business-to-business clients. Through a unique blend of print, dimensional and electronic media, Engel Creative has been a leader in providing leading edge ideas to companies of all sizes. The firm was founded in 2003 and is headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri.
